

TITLE OF YOUR BOOK

---

Author _____

Page numbers _____

Publisher _____

Year Published _____

WHAT ARE SOME KEY WORDS AND PHRASES?

Write a citation for one of the readings

_____

Author's Last name, first name	Title of the book in italics.	Publisher	Year published	Page(s)
--------------------------------	-------------------------------	-----------	----------------	---------

A person from Erie can go on to _____.

Sample Reading	Text	Page	In Erie (Y/N)	Outside Erie (Y/N)
1	1887 Harry T. Burleigh graduates from Erie High School; gives commencement speech, "How Far Shall We Educate?" reported verbatim in Erie Morning Dispatch .	xxii
2	In 1891, the last year before Burleigh left for New York City, he was on the go in Erie and the surrounding area as well as Cleveland and Buffalo.	57
3	1900 On January 23, Burleigh sings two recitals in Albany, New York, one at an afternoon reception at the home of Governor Theodore Roosevelt. Burleigh begins fifteen-year collaboration with Booker T. Washington, singing for Washington's fund-raising tours for Tuskegee Institute.	xxii
4	1908 Burleigh and his wife spend some weeks in London, where he sings for British royalty, partly arranged by contacts from J. P. Morgan and Booker T. Washington.	xxii
5	In mid-May Erie had suffered a devastating flood that took the homes of hundreds of Erie families and severely damaged the St. James A.M.E. Church, then located on East sixth Street.	89
6	Burleigh sang for King Edward VII and the Queen at the home of the Earl of Londale, at Stafford House for the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland and the Crown Princess of Sweden, the King's niece, who was visiting her parents, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.	156
7	The first of six songs Burleigh wrote in response to the Great War... "The Young Warrior" ... "swept Italy like a flash. Italian soldiers sang it on the battlefield and their people sang it at home."	283
8	After the founding of the St. James African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1874, most of the family's church and social activities revolved around this congregation, but young Harry often accompanied his mother to Sunday morning services at St. Paul's [Episcopal Cathedral].	25
9	1994 The Burleigh Society, with Burleigh's grandson, Dr. Harry T. Burleigh II, bring Burleigh's body back to be reinterred with appropriate ceremony in the Erie Cemetery in Erie, Pennsylvania, on May 29.	xiii		