Mr. Panda’s Donuts

Related Language Arts Lesson Airs October 25, 2021 on WQLN PBS

How to Make

Materials:
- Brown paper lunch bag
- Scissors
- Shaving cream
- Liquid glue
- Washable brown paint (optional)
- Kitchen sprinkles or construction paper confetti pieces
- Paper plate or bowl
- Spoon
- Paper doily (optional)

Directions:
1. Using scissors, cut off the bottom of the brown paper lunch bag.
2. Once the bottom has been removed, open the remaining part of the bag. Gently roll up the bag to form the paper donut.
3. Once the donut is formed, it is time to decorate!
4. To make the “frosting,” combine equal parts glue and shaving cream. Mix well and add the brown paint for “chocolate frosting,” or leave out the paint for “vanilla.”
5. Spoon “frosting” onto the top of the donut. While still wet, add construction paper confetti pieces or sprinkles from your kitchen.
6. Once dry, the donut can be glued to a paper doily as a plate if desired.

Good Manners/Kindness Jar

Related Science Lesson Airs October 27, 2021 on WQLN PBS

How to Make

Materials:
• Jar or container
• Puff balls or cotton balls
• Paper
• Crayons or markers
• Tape or glue

Directions:
1. Find a jar or empty container that will serve as a holding place for the good manners/kindness puffs that your child will achieve.
2. On a piece of paper, write your child/children’s name who will be filling the jar with acts of kindness and good manners that they perform.
3. Allow your child to decorate the paper/jar.
4. Tape or glue the paper to the outside of the jar.
5. Place a puff ball or cotton ball inside the jar each time your child shows an act of kindness or good manners.
6. When the jar is full, celebrate with something special. It can be something as simple as a walk, a special treat, a bike ride, or a trip to the park.
7. This is a wonderful way to point out the positive things your child does, and it encourages acts of kindness and good manners.

Manners Matter Book

Related Social Studies Lesson Airs October 28, 2021 on WQLN PBS

How to Make

Materials:
- Piece of cardboard folded in half
- Several paper grocery bags
- Scissors
- Glue and stapler
- Marker and crayons
- Tape

Directions:
1. Fold the piece of cardboard in half to make the front and back covers of the book.
2. Cut apart the paper bags to fit inside the book as the pages.
3. Trim the edges of the papers so they are all the same size.
4. Staple the pages together.
5. Glue the last page of the book onto the inside back cover.
6. Tape down the left side of the pages to secure the spine of the book.
7. Add one manner to each page as it is learned, discussed, and practiced.
8. Embellish the pages with art and objects as reminders.
9. Have fun reading, rereading, and practicing all of the manners inside.
10. More pages and manners can be added as needed.

Manners Matter

Related Art Lesson Airs October 29, 2021 on WQLN PBS

How to Make

Materials:
- White paper
- Markers or crayons
- Black crayon
- Watercolors
- Messy mat

Directions:
1. Using a black crayon/marker, draw an upside-down “u” shape from the bottom of the paper. This will form the head of your toucan.
2. Create the beak by drawing two long, curved lines from the head. Now make a curved line through the center to form the opening of the beak.
3. Make a dot near the beak to make an eye. Draw a circle around it to make it stand out.
4. Using curved lines, start from the toucan and draw to the edge of the paper to create leaves.
5. Using whatever art supplies you have at home, color your jungle scene.
