How to Make

Materials:

- Brown paper (or you can use a brown paper bag or the inside of a cereal box)
- White paper
- Dark-colored marker or crayon
- Scissors
- String or yarn
- Glue stick, other glue, stapler, or tape

Directions:

1. Cut out a peanut shape for Moose’s head.
2. Cut out antlers, or trace your child’s hands for antlers.
3. Decide whether you are making Moose’s name or your child’s name. Cut out a white rectangle for each letter in the name.
4. Cut out white ovals for eyes, or you can use googly eyes.
5. Glue or tape the antlers to the top of Moose’s head on the back.
6. Have your child draw pupils on the eyes and glue them on the head about halfway down. Have your child draw a nose and mouth.
7. Tie the string to one antler and drape across to the other antler.
8. Fold the small rectangles in half. For the name, write one letter on each rectangle. Fold over the yarn, and glue.
9. Once all the letters are attached, tie the other end of the yarn to the other antler.

Grownups, you may need to precut the pieces and assist with writing letters, depending on your child’s ability.
