One snowy night, Chris opened her window looking out at the snowman she built, all of a sudden her dog, Emma, jumped on her and pulled her dress, as if she was trying to say, "It's time for bed!"
Chris went to bed saying, "Okay, Emma! I know it's time for bed."
While Chris was sleeping, Chris's mom was in the kitchen cleaning the stove. Emma pulled her as well as if trying to say, "It's time for bed."
Chris's mom hurried and went to bed. She accidentally left the stove on. That's when the fire started. Emma smells the smoke, gets panicked.
While panicking, she ran out of the doggie door and bumped into the snowman.
Emma cries, “Please! Help my family! There is a fire in my house.”

“I wish I could, I have powers but I don’t have legs,” said the snowman.

Emma cried harder, “Can you please do something, I can’t see them suffer.”
The snowman was worried too but keeping strong he consoled Emma, “Don’t cry, we’ll think of something.”

Suddenly, the snowman got an idea to give his powers to Emma. Emma gets the magic powers, she ran her fastest to the fire station. On her way the roads were very icy, Emma slipped many times but she was just running and OOF! It’s slippery, but Emma you can do it.

running, making her way to the fire station.

She begged and pulled the firefighters as if saying, "Please! Follow me!" and made the firemen I'm glad she got help! In fact, what I gave her was just motivation as powers.

follow her. The firemen reached Chris's house and were trying their hardest to open the door. The fire was spreading inside the house.
Then super dog Emma came to the rescue, she busted the door open letting the firemen in and rescue her family. But in this rescue mission, Emma sadly gets covered in flames.

The fireman shouts, "STOP, DROP and ROLL Emma."

Another fireman gets the fire blanket to wrap Emma.

Emma wasn’t responding.

Chris comes closer, hugs Emma and cries, “You can’t leave us, you saved us and I wish you come back to me, my super dog.”

Just then Emma opens her eyes and licks Chris.
THE END!
