

The Very Lucky Ladybug

By Grayson Grinnell

Once there was a ladybug.
He lived in the woods. He was sad because he lived in the woods all alone.

One night, the ladybug was in a dream. He went to a new island. It was a dreamer's island. He met a bird that was red and blue.

The bird became his friend.
They played together in the woods and went to a museum.

When he woke up, he remembered the bird. The ladybug was lucky because he had a new friend.
