Standing

TALL

A POEM

by

AVYAN SHAH

The green Statue of Liberty,
Standing tall,
Going for infinity,
Making peace for all.

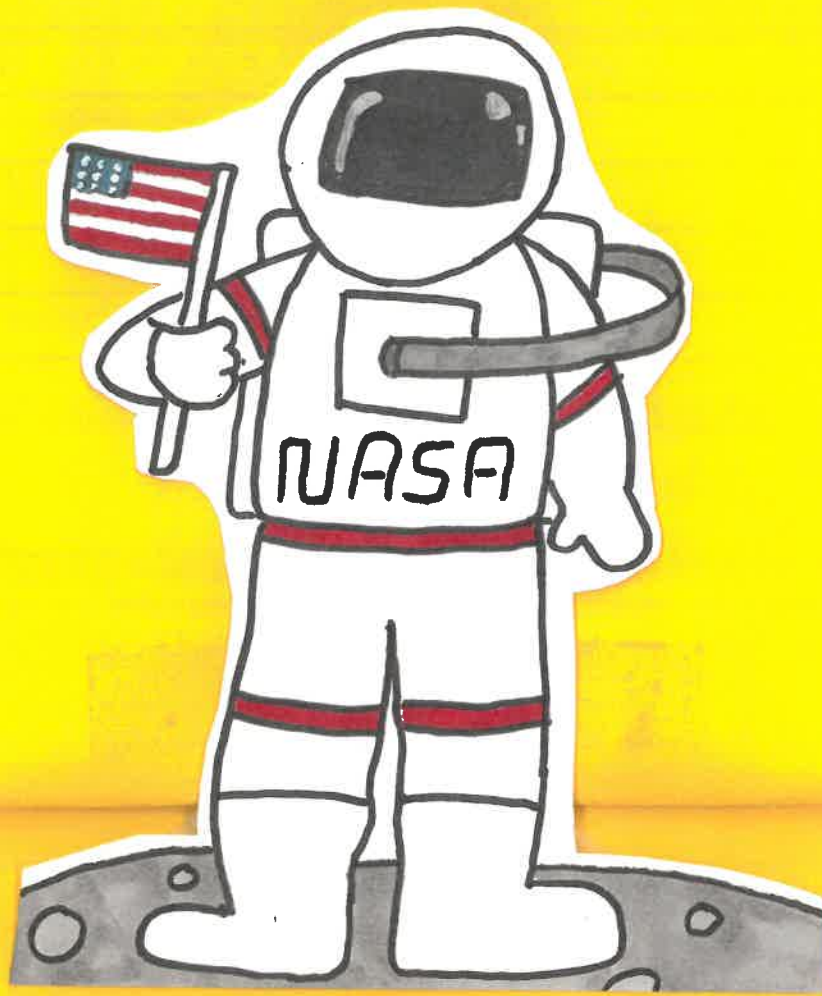

The fearless military,
Standing tall,
Being solitary,
Fighting for all.

Curious scientists,
Standing tall,
Experimenting being trialists,
Discovering new things for all.

Caring doctors,
Standing tall,
Being protectors,
Fighting disease for all.

Brave astronauts in space,
Standing tall,
Keeping their pace,
Gathering knowledge for all.

Patient instructors,
Standing tall,
Teaching to be good conductors,
And educating all.

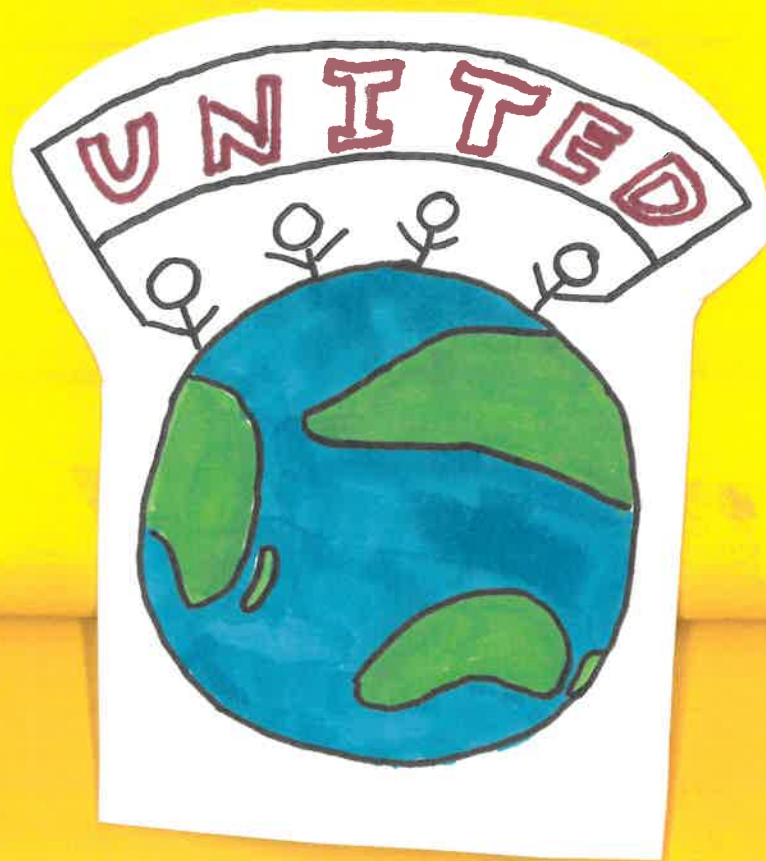

Growing youngsters,
Standing tall,
Learning in clusters,
Being a new future for all.

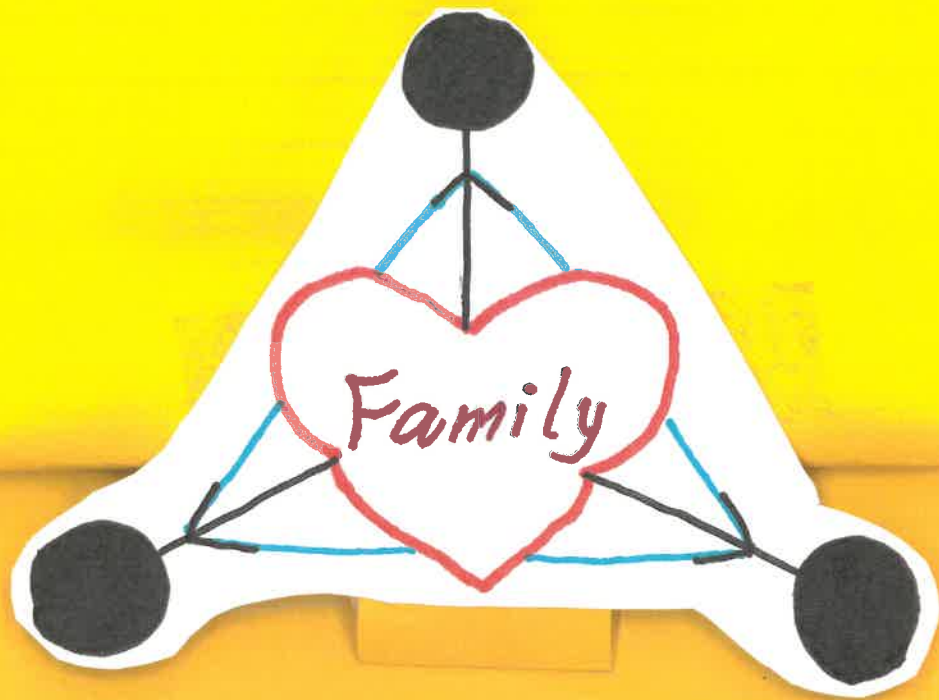

Green trees,
Standing tall,
Dancing in the breeze,
Giving oxygen to all.

The responsible world,
Standing tall,
Trying not to be hurled,
And to be united for all.

Loving family,
Standing tall,
Supporting happily,
Being a strong pillar to all.

I,
Standing tall,
Being I,
Wanting to help all.

I hope everyone stands TALL!
