

JAZZY'S

ADVENTURE

BY HAFSA KALIM

Jazzy was a little pixie who lived in Pixie-land with her mother and father. She loved adventures, but never found any. One day, when Jazzy was reading the pixie-news, she read a story about an evil dragon from Dragon-land who was trying to take over all the fantasy lands! Only a brave knight with a special dragon could stop him.

Jazzy paused for a moment. This would make a terrific adventure! She thought. So that night, Jazzy flew out of her house towards Dragon-land. The full moon was out, so Jazzy could see everything clearly.

She flew for a long while, until below her was a dragon-shaped island. Dragon-land!
Jazzy landed in a forest below.
Suddenly, she heard a loud stomping. The ground shook and Jazzy fell over.

Looking up, Jazzy saw a humongous

DRAGON!

It stood right in front of her, but she was so small it didn't see her! The dragon stomped on, and Jazzy darted into some bushes to avoid being crushed by the dragon's feet. The dragon went away and Jazzy safely came out of her hiding spot.

She dashed away as fast as her teeny legs could carry her. Soon, she grew sleepy and lay down in a pile of leaves. A few hours later, she was awakened by a tickle. "Hello?" a voice bellowed.

Jazzy jumped up to find another dragon in front of her. It was a smaller, orange dragon with a pair of glasses perched on his nose. Jazzy screamed, but the dragon said, "Don't be afraid! I'm not going to hurt you!" Slowly, he picked Jazzy up with a finger. "My name is Nicole," He said with a warm smile.

"What's your name?"

"I'm Jazzy!" Jazzy replied. "I'm going to defeat the evil dragon."

Nicole's eyes grew wide. "Jazzy," He whispered. "Your going to try and stop him!? He's unstoppable!"

"Oh, I can do it!" Jazzy exclaimed. The dragon gave it a thought. "Okay," He said. "But you can't do it alone! I will help you!"

"Thanks!" Jazzy said.

So together, Nicole and Jazzy hatched a plan.

"I heard the evil dragon is attacking Pixie-land next!" Nicole informed Jazzy.

"Great!" Jazzy shouted. Then she whispered, "We should hide at Pixie-land castle and defeat the evil dragon when he arrives!"

"In the dragon castle there is a magic gem. When its magic hits someone, all evil is drained out of them!" Nicole said.

"Really? I never knew that!" Jazzy exclaimed.

So Nicole flew them over to the castle.

They got permission to use the gem.

Then, Nicole flew them over to Pixie-land castle and they hid. Nicole taught Jazzy the magic words for the gem.

Hours went by. Jazzy began to grow hopeless. But then, around midnight, the ground

The evil dragon had arrived!

Jazzy jumped out of her hiding spot with the gem clasped in her hands. She then said the magic words.

"Magic gem,
Magic gem.
Drain the Evil out!"

A ray of magic hit the dragon.
Faster than lightning, the evil dragon was a good dragon!

He looked around at all the destruction he had caused. He then used his magic powers to reverse it! Jazzy and Nicole returned as heroes! As for the now-good dragon, he became a mighty protector of the lands.

