

The Lazy Caterpillar

By Taylor Hendrickson

One day there was a cat named Timmy. She was outside playing at the park.

She saw a spider that she wanted to eat, but then a lazy caterpillar came to eat the spider, too.

They fought over the spider.
The caterpillar did not want to look for another spider because he was lazy.

Timmy said, "How about we eat it together?"

The caterpillar said, "Let's do that." So, they shared the spider, and they weren't hungry any more. They were friends after that.

The End
